

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Brooklyn, New York – April 28th, 2008

Brooklyn's Greenest Block party

Saturday May 3rd 12:00pm – 12:00am

New York's first solar-powered eco-eatery will kick off its 2008 summer season Saturday, May 3rd from noon to midnight. Live music, designers market, kid's entertainment, hot dj's and much more! Check out our schedule of the day's events!

12- 7pm- Designers Market

Look Fly – Shop Local. If your passion is fashion, you won't want to miss this outdoor market featuring Brooklyn's hottest young designers who will be lining South Portland Ave.

12-5- Dj Cato spins in the Courtyard

A master of eclectic style, blending, Funk, Soul, Afro-Beat, World music Hip-Hop, Reggae, Rock, and Brazilian sounds to create the perfect mood and feeling, Cato is passionate about music, and that love will shine through during his 4 hour set at the Habana block party

4:00pm- Stone Forrest Ensemble

Stone Forest Ensemble - is a classical/world music/hip hop fusion, featuring violin, cello, percussion and a beat-boxer, seeing this band is a musical experience you won't soon forget. www.myspace.com/sfenyc

5-10- DJ Juice E spins

DJ Juice E spins a mix of many types of music, and her expertise is exposing the commonalities between them.

Listening to one of her sets, it is not uncommon for her to go seamlessly from an early 90s Indie Hip Hop classic to a 60s protest song, a Latin Funk gem and maybe a 80s Dance Classic.
